WELCOME IODA 2025

ABOUT THE CONGRESS:

- The International Otology Disorder Academy (IODA) Congress is a globally recognized event dedicated to advancing health worldwide. It serves as a premier platform for fostering discussions and exchanges on medical conditions related to otolaryngology. This prestigious gathering brings together world-class speakers, top medical experts, and leading researchers for several days of scientific exploration and professional networking.

The congress will feature an inspiring lineup of keynote speakers, complemented by plenary sessions, focused discussions, and hands-on workshops that delve into the latest advancements in the field. Attendees will have the opportunity to engage in thought-provoking conversations, explore innovative research, and connect with peers who are shaping the future of otolaryngology.

Join us for an enriching experience that blends cutting-edge science with global collaboration.

We look forward to seeing you in Warsaw, November 12-15 2025!
